Danielle Eubank »

Known for her mesmerizing waterscapes, expedition artist Danielle Eubank sails and paints the Seven Seas, 600 BC-style.

Eubank's eerie and evocative oil paintings capture the magic of distorted reflections on ocean waters. As the artist-in-residence on a trans-global sailing adventure, she has spent months embedded as an active crew member on the Phoenicia expedition, recreating 2,500-year-old maritime history while discovering leagues of fresh inspiration for her artistic works.
